Mr. Examiner, I introduce paper marked Exhibit "B", and wish that it be made part of the record.

Q: State whether or not your uncle left any personal property, Mrs. Willey.

- A: No, he left no personal property.
- Q: At the death of your uncle, Emmert C. Stottlemyer, did he leave any heirs-at-law?
 - A: Yes.
 - Q: State who they are.
- A: A half-sister, Mrs. Fannie F. Fanjoy, and the children of a deceased brother, Martin Stottlemyer, who was my father, the said Martin Stottlemyer having died prior to the death of my uncle. My father died sometime during the year 1919, and left surviving him the following children: myself, Ethel Willey, intermarried with Harry P. Willey, my husband; Ernest Stottlemyer, intermarried with Eva Stottlemyer, his wife; Francis Stottlemyer, unmarried; Paul Stottlemyer, intermarried with Lena Stottlemyer, his wife; and Richard Stottlemyer, unmarried; all of whom are of full legal age and residents of Washington County, Maryland.
- Q: Your uncle had another brother, Grover N. Stottle-myer. When did he die?
 - A: He died sometime prior to the death of my uncle.
 - Q: Was he unmarried?
 - A: Yes.
- Q: Can this real estate be divided among the heirs without sustaining loss or injury to the parties in interest?
 - A: No, it could not be divided as it stands.
 - a: In your opinion, what is the value of this property
- A: I know the assessment on it is $1,000.00, and I consider that the property is worth between $800.00 and $1,000.00.
